Bride of the Month

There's little doubt about the setting for a bride at Brooklands Park. Here we show among the spring flowers at the park Sharon, only daughter of Mr and Mrs Les McKoy, Fitzroy, who was recently married to Kerry Beaurepaire, third son of Mr and Mrs F. Beaurepaire, NP. (VOGUE).

OUR COVER

Spring is here! Not that you'd notice! Yet, during one of those fine spells, we managed to capture the spirit of spring at Brooklands Park with Janette Higgins, a New Plymouth 18-year-old who is training to be a teacher. Janette makes a very pretty picture as she swings on a tree over a bed of spring flowers.

BACK COVER

Top: Not exactly a winter sport for us old codgers, but an exhilarating one for the young people. They tell us that the winter is a good time to surf at NP, with some good surfing waves.

Bottom: Will this be our local beach of the future? A track has been formed down to the back beach at Paritutu. Quite a pretty setting, eh?

TROLLEY DERBY WINNER

YOUTH AT PLAY

Below: This was the daily muster of girls at the recent YWCA stay-home camp in the August school holidays.

Engaged

Above, left: PEASE-MACE. Carol, second daughter of Mr and Mrs D.Mace, NP, to Murray, third son of Mr and Mrs H.R.Pease, Oakura. (VOGUE).

Left: WINGATE-MORGAN. Barbara Joan, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs L.M.Morgan, NP, to Keith Orde, youngest son of Mr and Mrs R.F.Wingate, New Plymouth. (VOGUE STUDIOS).

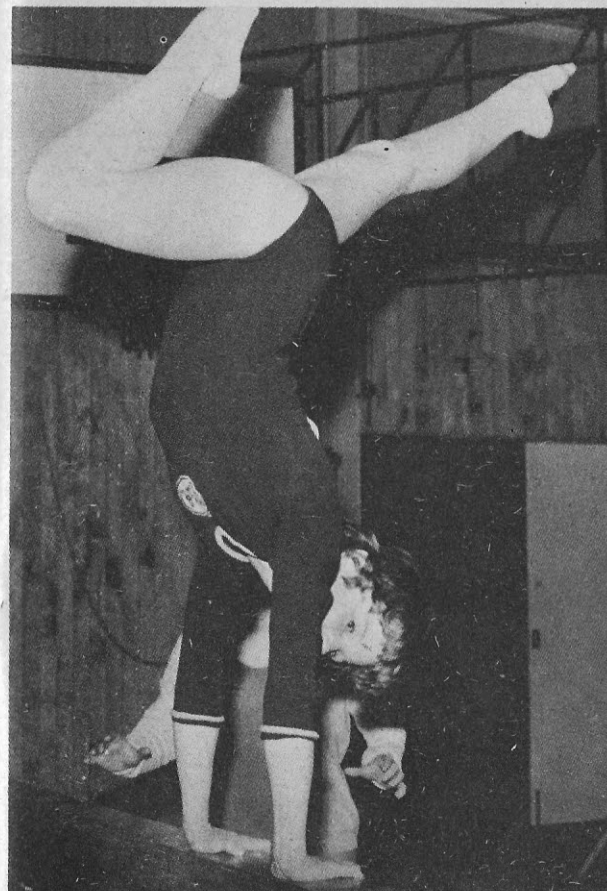

Below, left: WOLLAND-ROBINS. Cynthia Helen, second daughter of Mr and Mrs S.W. Robins, NP, to David James Wolland, youngest son of Mr and Mrs R.A.Saunders, NP. (VOGUE STUDIOS).

Above: SMITH-QUINLAN. Pamela, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs N.F.Quinlan, NP, to Gary Roy, eldest son of Mr and Mrs R.W.Smith, NP. (VOGUE).

Below: ADLAM-TAYLOR. Anne Shirley, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs A.W.Taylor, NP, to Wayne Douglas, third son of Mr and Mrs R.V.Adlam, NP. (VOGUE).

NZ GYM CHAMPIONS. It would seem that the gymnastic field of sport within the province is becoming very much higher in quality than it has in the past, with the Taranaki team, 8 grade girls, winning the recent NZ Championship. Here are three members of that team. Above: Christine Thacker. Below, left: Suzanne Johnson, and above, right: Wendy Drake. These girls are from NP. The other two members of the winning team are Mandy Riley and Adele Wilton of Hawera. Below, right: NP's Jim Thorne who was placed fifth overall in the junior men's champs.

WE GOT WALLOPED

There's no doubt about it, we were beaten, as Ross Brown said, up front and in the backs. Yes, we'll have to admit that the boys from the Bay have a fine team—certainly too good for us. It looks like the shield will stay in the Bay for a time yet. Above: Ross Brown gets a kick away. Below: With Clarke on the ground, Eliason comes round for the ball. Above, left: Eliason played well in the line-outs. Right: John Major gets his hands to the ball. Below, right: Ferdie did at least get a "sniff" of the shield!

Married

Above: CROSS-BARRACLOUGH. At the Methodist Church, Opunake, Rise June, only daughter of Mr and Mrs F.S. BarracloUGH, Opunake, to Phillip, second son of Mr and Mrs J. Cross, Wellington. Matrons of honour were Dianne Harnett, Wellington, and Lyn BarracloUGH, Wellington. Peter Burr, Wellington, was the best man, and John BarracloUGH, brother of the bride, Opunake, was the groomsman. Future home, Warkworth.

Below: TROTT-PARR. At Christ Church, Wanganui, Judy Ann, daughter of Mrs I. Parr, Wanganui, to Colin Basil, son of Mr and Mrs B. Trott, Wanganui, formerly of New Plymouth. The bridesmaid was Leonie Dandy, Wanganui, and the best man was William Trott, Wellington. The flowergirls were Janet Parr, sister of the bride, Wanganui, and Robyn Bryson, Wanganui. Future home, Wanganui.

"KING BOB" CROWNED

The Fitzroy Scout den was packed for the crowning of Prince and King Bob, the two boys who had earned most in the recent Bobs for Jobs campaign. The programme saw the boys providing a lot of singing for the parents, and good singing it was too. Above: Happy faces among the Cubs. Right: District Cub Commissioner, Mrs Coleman, prepares Prince Bob, Ken Billing, Central troop, who made the magnificent sum of $8.04. Below, left: Prince Bob, Ken Billing, and centre, King Bob, David Purcell, Oakura troop, who made $14. Below, right: Mrs Coleman crowns Prince Bob.

Engaged

Above, left: JACOB-SEARS. Maureen Joy, third daughter of Mr and Mrs D.H.Sears, Okato, to William Frank, only son of Mr and Mrs W.W.Jacob, Levin.

Left: DEMCHY-MAUL. Carol, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs K.G.A.Maul, Stratford, to John, the second son of Mr and Mrs J.T.Demchy, Stratford.

Below left: SMITH-PRESTNEY. Marilyn Joy, the eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs N.A.Prestney, NP, to John Desmond, youngest son of Mr and Mrs W.J.Smith, NP. (HENRY MCGEE STUDIOS).

Above: YOUNG-TURNER. Marie Yvonne, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs S.W.Turner, Queensland, Australia, to Ian Nathaniel, third son of Mrs M.M.Young, Stratford, and the late Mr J.Young.

Below: TAUNT-EVANS. Margaret, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs G.Evans, Pahiatua, to Bill, elder son of Mr and Mrs J.G.Taunt, Stratford. (DAVID PAUL STUDIOS).

Married

Left: LILICO-TIPPETT. At St. Mary's Anglican Church, NP, Rayewyn, only daughter of Mr and Mrs E.J.Tippett, NP, to David Kenneth, elder son of Mr and Mrs J.E.Lilico, Whangarei. The bridesmaid was Barbara Colville, NP, and the best man was Malcolm Lilico, Whangarei. Future home, Papatoetoe.

Below: JOSLIN-KING. At the Whiteley Methodist Church, NP, Pauline, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs F.King, NP, to Trevor Joslin, only son of Mr and Mrs F.Fraser, Stokes Valley. The bridesmaids were Marie King, sister of the bride, NP, Colleen Read, Palmerston North, and Cathy Fraser, sister of the groom, Stokes Valley. The best man was Tim Leighton, Stokes Valley, and the groomsman was Ross Follett, Stokes Valley. Future home, Palmerston North.

ANGLICAN HOLIDAY PROGRAMME

PONY CLUB SCHOOL IN N.P.

Recently the NP Pony Club held a riding school at the NP racecourse. The school was to train the children in general horsemanship and many took advantage of this. Special courses were laid out to train both horses and riders. Above, left: Barbara Jones successfully clears one of the hurdles. Above, centre: Jumping the hurdles seems no trouble to Jenny Blyde on Goldie. Above, right: Lea Glengarry on Tammy prepares to jump one of the many hurdles. Centre: Mrs McDonald, Te Pahu, the instructor at the school, gives her pupils some advice. Below: The girls watch the team members with a critical eye.

Toll Girls' Battle

The annual battle between the toll girls of NP and Stratford was a fierce "go" this year. We felt that it is a good job the girls have a little more natural padding than the men; this surely absorbed some of the shock! It was a great game, with Stratford running out winners 12-3....we think the ref. must have come from Stratford! Above: The victorious team of huskies from Stratford. Bottom: The vanquished from NP.

TARANAKI PLAYERS DID WELL

The NZ badminton championships at the YMCA stadium provided some exciting matches, with Taranaki having a particularly successful time winning quite a few of the titles at stake. Our own Richard Purser won three senior titles. Above: Here's Richard Purser with Owen Clegg in the process of winning the men's doubles. Below: Janet Dick, NP, and Robin Glenie, Auckland, were the winners of the Under 19 girls' doubles. Right: Dallas Bint, Lepperton, won the under 16 singles title. Below, right: Ian Willans and Bryan Purser won the under 19 doubles.

Richard Purser and A.Glenie, Auckland, were the victors in the mixed doubles.

Auckland triumphed in the women's doubles with Alison Glenie and Gaynor Weatherley.

Winners of the veterans' ladies doubles for the third year in succession were Mesdames B.Skeen and M.Miller.

Bert Sutcliffe, the cricketer, now a Rothmans representative presented his firm's trophy to Reg Skeen, captain of the Auckland team which just pipped Taranaki by the slimmest of margins.

S.Craig, Wellington, ex-Taranaki, won the Girls' Plate event.

Bryan Purser collected as many championship cups as his brother Richard.

Junior All Blacks Overwhelmed

After a couple of trials, the junior All Black selectors fielded a side against Taranaki that looked very good on paper, but it was a different story on the paddock. The home forward pack just rolled the juniors back and took command of the game. Above: A. Smith and I. Eliason worked well together. Below: Wards goes in to tackle. Above, right: Jenkins collars his man. Right: Wards and Wills together. Below, right: Schep gets this kick away, with Hurley coming up in support.

Married

Above: NEAL-MALONE. At St. Joseph's Catholic Church, NP, Patricia Anne, second daughter of Mr and Mrs A. J. Malone, NP, to Keith George, youngest son of Mrs N. J. Neal, NP, and the late Mr Neal. The bridesmaids were Denise Malone, sister of the bride, NP, and Anita Martelletti, Hawera. The best man was Kevin Wood, NP, and the groomsmen were Tom Butters, Wanganui. The flower-girls were Eileen and Kathryn Pond, Gisborne. Future home, Hawera.

Below: ASHBY-HURLEY. At St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Patea, Jaqueline Erin Patricia, only daughter of Mr and Mrs P. Hurley, Alton, to Murray Leslie, second son of Mr and Mrs L. T. Ashby, Marton. The bridesmaids were Janice Scown, Carol Hurley, and Frances Myers. The best man was Wally Hodder, Turangi, and the groomsmen were Paul Campbell, Manaia, and Gary Ashby, brother of the groom, Marton. Future home, Turangi.

BEATEN — BUT NOT DISGRACED

The touring Tasmania women's indoor basketball team recently fought out a great duel with the local North Taranaki girls. It was a thrilling game from start to finish, and the local girls provided some of the stiffest opposition that the Tasmanians have met on their NZ tour. It was superior shooting at the net which earned the winning margin of 44-19, but with the score at 18-12 at half time it looked like anyone's game. Above: These are the North Taranaki girls, from left: Captain Tui Gerhoffer, Robin Samson, Maureen Hammersley, Janet Taylor, Betty Whalen, Lesley Skelton, Lorraine Limmer, Raewyn Skelton and Mary Clark. Below, left: Lorraine Limmer gets sandwiched between two attacking Tasmanians. Below, right: Lorraine again in the thick of the play.

Out and About

The old timers of the Waterside Rugby League club certainly put up a great battle against their younger counterparts in the annual Old Timers v. Present Players match. We thought it would have been a walk-over for the older chaps by the number of players they had on the paddock. Above: Head-on smash coming up! Above, right: The old 'uns were in the thick of it, but just that trifle too late. Right: Here, Barry Marsh and Bill Walker beat the young fry to the ball.

Children on holiday from school are usually at a loose end, not so these children caught by our roving camera during the holiday. Left: Peter Jones spent a lot of his time exercising his pet dog. Centre: Ross Johnston was practising to be a traffic cop. Right: David and Jo O'Gorman, visitors from Tokoroa, visited the zoo at Brooklands Park, with their father.

Old Timers Got Winded

The Watersiders Rugby League team recently accepted a challenge from the past players to a game. While some of the older players had kept themselves fairly fit, it was obvious that some of the others had gone to seed as it were. This is not to say that the players of today's team had it all their own way; we think the ref. could have helped the old 'uns a bit more. Above: Old 'uns Bruce Walker and Les Fox bear down on Jo Bishop and "Popeye". Below: Johnnie Hapi looked anything but that after his clash with Bill Walker. Right: Just look at the condition some of the older players had collected. Below, right: This just goes to show that the old 'uns were in the thick of it.

Married

At St. Mary's Anglican Church, NP, Helen, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Fraser, Bell Block, to Graeme Jury, youngest son of Mrs Fitzgerald, NP, and the late Mr Jury. The bridesmaid was Irene Fraser, sister of the bride, Bell Block, and the best man was Gary Eldershaw, NP. The flower-girl was Karen Farquhar. Future home, NP.

Below: GOODIN-DRAKE.
At St. Andrew's Anglican Church, Inglewood, Jenny, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs N.H. Drake, Inglewood, to Paul, youngest son of Mr and Mrs H.A. Goodin, Fitzroy. The bridesmaids were Dianne Presland, Inglewood, and Patricia Drake, sister of the bride, Inglewood. The best man was Alan Eriwata, Fitzroy, and the groomsmen were Rodney Eynon, Fitzroy. Future home, New Plymouth.

AMATEUR 50-MILE RACE

The Open 50-mile Handicap to Stratford and return organised by the NPZROC attracted large fields for all of their events. Sixty-five riders took part in the senior event. Above: The second man home in the seniors, B. Whale, Wanganui, leads a large bunch over the finishing line. Below: Winner of the event was New Plymouth's D.M. Hill, shown crossing the line after a grueling 50-mile ride. Left: Winner of the A grade colts was K. Russell of Morrinsville. Below, left: Second home in the A grade colts was C. Haw, NP, followed closely by L. Bartle, Rotorua.

Hawera COMPETITIONS

Success, year after year, is the story of the Hawera Competitions held during the August school holidays. This year, no fewer than 1600 took part in this enjoyable week of competitions, drawing entries from as far as Auckland in the north and Wellington in the south. Above, left: Winners of the tap troupe open section were, from left, Judith Choldcroft, Anne Manning, Carol Harvey and Wendy Sole of the Colleen Hoskin School of Dancing, Waitara. Above, right: Denise Loasby, NP, winner of the under 8 ballet cup. Below, left: Paul Huffam, Hawera, in a character recital. Below, right: Winners of the group dance get final instruction from their teacher. From left, Wynne Ellingham, Rayna Hayward, Christine Douglas and Peta Spooner.

Up?

Give Us a Call

When we attend a function, we don't stop at one photograph. "Photo News" is the ONLY newspaper that gives COMPLETE photographic coverage. And what is more, we do this SEVEN days a week. So don't be backward in giving us a ring if your organisation has something coming up. Just phone 6101 or 88843, and after hours the number is 88712.

Wedding Bells

Left: GOLDSWORTHY-ROWE. At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, Noeline, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs R.C. Rowe, Waitara, to Brian, eldest son of Mr and Mrs G. Goldsworthy, NP. The bridesmaids were Sherrin Cleaver, Tarata, and Joy Frethey, Waitara. The best man was Rodney Goldsworthy, brother of the groom, Dunedin, and the groomsman was Barry Spicer, Auckland. Future home, Waitara.

Below: JENKINS-GORDGE. At St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Kaponga, Winifred Anne, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs G. H. R. Gordge, Kaponga, to Raymond Stuart, son of Mr and Mrs S. W. Jenkins, NP. The bridesmaids were Judy Malone, Auckland, Selma Gordge, sister of the bride, and Suzanne and Denise Eldridge. The best man was Ian Eliason, Kaponga, and the groomsman was Allan Jenkins, Ngaere. Future home, New Plymouth.

AFTER 30 YEARS' SERVICE

Right: Mr Barry Jarvis, right, who recently completed 30 years' service with the Shell Oil Company, was presented with a token of recognition by the director, Mr C. F. McKinney, Wellington, who made the journey specially for this presentation.

ACCIDENT

These two cars collided recently on the intersection of Vivian and Robe Streets. A very dangerous intersection which should have "Give Way" signs. Fortunately no serious injury resulted.

N.P. HAWERA HARRIER RELAY

Organised by the NP and Hawera Harriers clubs, this was the first such event to have been held, and it proved a success with seven teams entered from as far as Rotorua and Palmerston North. It was a well-balanced New Plymouth team that finished first in the event. Above: Runners in the first leg from the NP Racecourse start on the long relay. Below: R. Sutherland passes on the baton to his team mate Eric Kemp. Both were running for the Wanganui team. Right: First over the Te Henui bridge on Junction road was Gerry Allen, Hawera A team, followed by Wanganui's R. Sutherland and NP's Ian Barry, below, right:

You Should Have Been There!

How often have we heard this remark from people who had attended a function at which there was no photographer. Matter of fact, our stock reply is, "Well, we would have been there, if you had let us know about the function". And that just about sums up the situation. If you've got a "do" coming up, be a sport, give us a ring at 6101 or 88843. Or if you don't think about it until the evening, then the number is 88712.

Left: ADAMSON-CALDWELL. At St. John's Presbyterian Church, Hawera, Raewyn Ann, third daughter of Mr and Mrs R.E. Caldwell, Hawera, to Donald William, eldest son of Mr and Mrs D. Adamson, Normanby. The bridesmaid was Lynette Hall, Manutahi, and the best man was Neville Adamson, brother of the groom, Normanby. Future home, Hawera. (DAVID PAUL).

Below: MOREHU-GRIFFITHS. At St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Manaia, Eileen, youngest daughter of Mrs H. Griffiths, Victoria, Australia, to Neville, second son of Mr and Mrs T. Morehu, Manaia. The matrons of honour were Mrs C. Workman, Wellington, and Mrs F. Hohahia, Opunake. The best man was Lindsay Carr, Manaia, and the groomsman was Lionel Morehu, brother of the groom, Manaia. Future home, Wellington. (DAVID PAUL STUDIO).

POSH PUB FOR RAHOTU RESIDENTS

Now in the throes of near completion is the new hotel at Rahotu. It is being built just at the rear of the old premises, above, which, looking at them from this angle, seem to indicate that they have fulfilled their usefulness. The new building, below, is a well designed one, and will afford more civilised drinking facilities for the inhabitants of the district. In close proximity to the new hotel, shown just behind it in our photograph, is the Rahotu Hall.

Taranaki Hairdressing Championships

One thing's for sure. The hairdressers of this province are not only proud of their profession, but keen to show just how good they are in competition. The Stratford Memorial Hall was filled with competitors for the whole of one day recently, for their annual champs, which this year created records with the number of entries. Above: Placegetters in the Junior Setting competition. Other pictures on this page are of competitors in this event. Above, right: President Mr Cook helps a girl with her cape. Below, from left: Rosamond Mantle, Stratford, and her model Beverly Lane, who gained third place in this competition. Julie Salisbury, NP, who got fourth place. Marie Cook, Hawera. Bottom, from left: Pam Richardson, Manaia, Margaret Beavis, NP, and finally Gaynor Gatland, Waitara.

Janis Sutherland, NP, was first in the Open Impromptu class.

Elizabeth Read, NP, was second placegetter in the Open Impromptu.

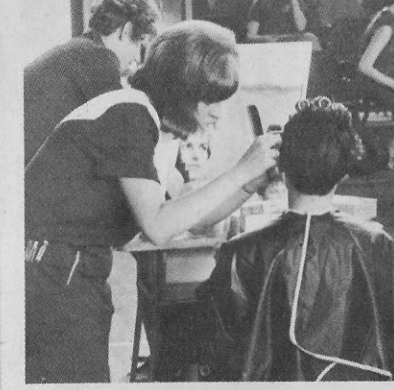

Sharron Fraser, NP.

Annette Gibbons, NP.

Julie Gyde, NP, took her work very seriously.

Donna Paul, NP.

Robyn Waite, Hawera, hard at work on her model.

Margot Spilman, Wanganui.

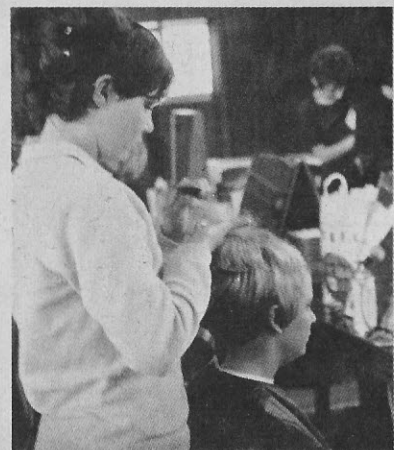

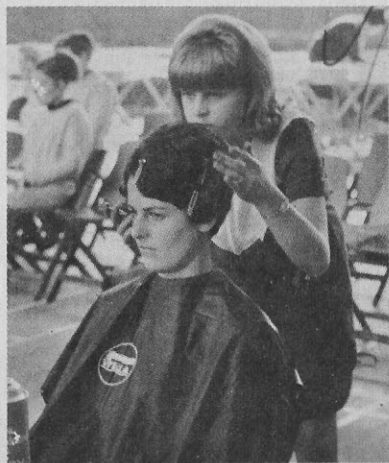

Anne Sherriff, Eltham.

The Open Setting competition was perhaps the most exacting of all, with competitors coming from afar to try their luck at lifting some of our magnificent trophies. Above: The first four placegetters, with their models. Above, right: Winner of this event was Judith Allen, NP, shown here hard at work. Below, left: Anne Senior, NP, was fourth in this open event. Below, centre: Marie Cook, Hawera. Below, right: Julie Gyde, NP, third placegetter. Bottom, left: Dianne Dakers, Hawera. Below, centre: Margot Spillman, Wanganui. Below, right: Margaret Wallace, Huntly, who was second overall in this competition.

Following the competitions, there was a ball in the Stratford Memorial Hall, and presentation of trophies. Needless to say, everyone enjoyed themselves, as is always the way with the Hairdressers' social functions. Above: Anne Senior, NP, was the winner of the Junior Setting up to 4 years' experience. Above, right: Winner of the Open Styling was New Plymouth's Judith Allen. Below, left: Janis Sutherland, NP, winner of the Open Impromptu. Below, right: Lesley Jared, Wellington, first in the junior up to 2 years. Bottom, left: Elizabeth Read, NP, was second in the Open Impromptu. Bottom, right: Julie Gyde and her model were third in the Open Styling.

Goodbye Guv... and Good Luck!

So much have Sir Bernard and Lady Fergusson endeared themselves to the people of this province that we affectionately say "Goodbye Guv, and good luck". This was the last visit we will have from this very popular Governor General and his good lady, and it was with a touch of sadness that farewells were said at the NP Airport when they finally departed after a lightning visit to the city. Below: The last shot of Their Excellencies as they boarded their plane for Wellington. Right: In the War Memorial Hall, Sir Bernard found time to talk to many. Centre, right: Sir Bernard arrives at the packed hall for the civic farewell. Bottom: Official party listens as Sir Bernard makes his final address.

Above, right: The War Memorial Hall in New Plymouth was crowded for the farewell civic reception for the Governor-General, Sir Bernard, and Lady Fergusson. It was pleasing to see so many civic-minded people at this ceremony. Below: After the arrival at the airport, Their Excellencies motored to Pukeiti but stopped on the way at Bell Block to say some words with the pupils of the Bell Block school who had lined the roadside for this important occasion. ## SHIELD PARADE IN NAPIER

It was a great pre-match parade in Napier--as good as any that we have had in New Plymouth--with floats displaying all the dire threats which used to adorn our own floats of the past shield era. And they were no idle threats either: Above, left: Hawkeye is an impressive mascot for the Bay. Above, left: Here's a new kind of eating house, and you should have seen the menu, mostly made up of Taranaki players! Below, left: "Watch out for the birdie, Ferdie" says the sign. We did! Below, right: Now just fancy nurses not knowing any better than that! They tried to milk him...or were they looking for foot and mouth disease?

OLD COURTHOUSE ALMOST GONE

By the time that this issue is on sale, there will be very little, if anything, of the old courthouse in Robt Street remaining. It's good to see some of these old buildings disappearing from the local scene, making way for fine modern structures, but we feel that this old building will not disappear without a certain amount of nostalgia, from folks involved in minor cases in a magistrate's court to those involved in murder trials. Above: This was all that was left of the building when it was photographed two weeks ago. Below: The interior provided some very fine timber. This is the view which many prisoners have faced.

Changing Face

With new buildings taking the place of old ones in the city, we are fast becoming modern in our skyline. This applies particularly with the western end of Devon Street, with a new courthouse, a new Government building nearing completion, above, and the new Catholic church and hall, which will be alongside the Government building. All that remains now is the removal of the old Post Office, and we'll have a fine new block of modern buildings of which the city can be proud. The Government building, above, is now more than just a maze of scaffolding. Below: Once more, a new building in the heart of the city, that of the NZ Insurance Company on the corner of Gill and Currie Streets. When this is completed, more roadway will be available to the motorist and it will iron out a dog leg on this part of the road.

BATTLE OF BRITAIN REMEMBERED

The recent anniversary of the Battle of Britain was marked by a short service and wreath laying at the Cenotaph in New Plymouth. There was a large contingent of ATC Cadets at the ceremony who were backed by ex-RNZAF men and ex-WAAF's. Above: The gathering at the Cenotaph as the officiating minister delivers his address. Below: Planes from the NP Aero Club provided a fly-past over the Cenotaph. Right: RSA officials lay their wreath. Below, right: Women's organisations remembered too.

ADINUM

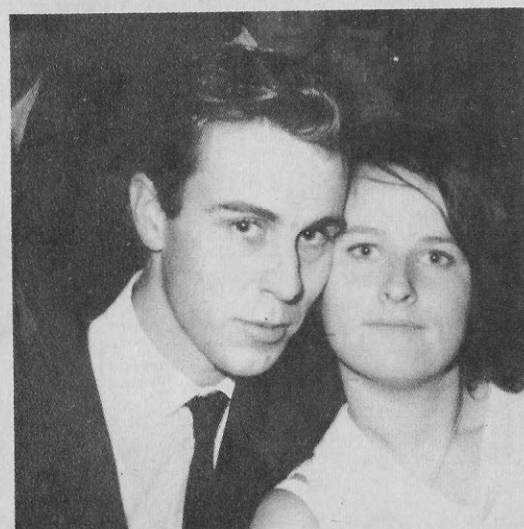

Above: Been round to St. Mary's Church lately in Vivian Street? If you do, just have a look at that unsightly ex-boarding house opposite the church, and right in between two very clean and elegant private homes. This surely is a bad advertisement for the city, being right opposite its most visited attraction. An empty section would be a better sight than this decrepit old building.

Above: See these tyre marks? They were recently done by some of the more irresponsible youths of the town as they raced around this corner, virtually on two wheels. And just imagine what would have happened had someone or something been coming round in the opposite direction! Teenagers get a bad name, but it's only the few like these idiots who get that name for this section of our community and it's high time that these larrikins were stopped. We would be only too happy to report any that we see doing such stupid things as this, it's up to the citizens to follow suit. By doing this we MIGHT make our roads a little safer.

TARANAKI'S CONVINCING WIN

From the result of this game, it is obvious that the home boys go far better in muddy conditions. Wanganui never really recovered from the shock of finding itself two goals down in the first two minutes of the game, when Taranaki showed that they were there to get a job done. Leading 2-1 at half time, the Taranaki team went on to win comfortably 5-3. Above: The hardest working player on the field was the Wanganui goalkeeper M. Remfrey, who, despite several fine saves, like the one pictured, was beaten five times. Left: Remfrey, once again called on to make a desperate save in the face of the foraging Taranaki forwards. Below, left: All the Wanganui defenders had a hard day. Below: Remfrey's agility kept the score down.

N.Z. JUNIOR BRASS BAND

During the August school holidays, the town was invaded by junior brass bandmen from all parts of the country. Among those taking part were a few from the province, and at the end of the week the youngsters had learned a lot and provided the public with some very good music. A concert on the Thursday proved that they were a good combination, and provided a fine programme for the full hall to enjoy. Here is the complete band, taken by VOGUE studios.

Provincial Boxing Championships

Fifty-six bouts were fought out recently for the Taranaki boxing championships, and the last fight on the bill was held way past midnight. It was perhaps the most successful contest held for many years and it seems that the sport is on the up grade in the province. Above: One of the best bouts of the night was between T.Perrett, Hawera, left, and A.Kettle, Waitara. The former won on points. Below: G.Newport, Waitara, retained his title against A.Eru, Rotorua. Above, right: R. Peters, Taupo, right, was the winner against H. Chadfield, Wanganui. Right: R.Feaver, Opunake, lost this semi-final to A.Eru, Rotorua. Below, right: F.Beamsley, Dannevirke, right, beat G. Flay, Waitara, in the junior lightweight class.

MIDGETS WIND UP THEIR SEASON

Below: There were happy faces at the end-of-season wind up of the NPOB midgets when they were entertained to tea at the club rooms. They polished off everything that was laid before them in the shortest possible time.

Married

Left: HOWE-FRANKLYN. At St. Mary's Anglican Church, NP, Janice, elder daughter of Mr and Mrs H.T. Franklyn, NP, to Bruce, younger son of Mrs R. Howe, Palmerston North, and the late Mr Howe. The matron of honour was Barbara Roydhouse, Wellington, and the best man was Kert Taylor, Hastings. Future home, NP.

Below: BEAUREPAIRE-McKOOY. At the Holy Trinity Church, Fitzroy, Sheryn Gwen, only daughter of Mr and Mrs L. McKoy, NP, to Kerry Bruce, third son of Mr and Mrs F. Beaurepaire, NP. The matron of honour was Nancy McGrath, NP, and the bridesmaid was Rosemary Beaurepaire, sister of the groom, NP. The best man was David Harris, NP, and the groomsman was Glen Beaurepaire, brother of the groom, Auckland. Future home, NP. (VOGUE STUDIO).

MAIN STREET INGLEWOOD, N.Z.

INGLEWOOD—THEN AND NOW

There's been a marked improvement in the main street at Inglewood since the photograph above was taken. Some of the old verandahs have disappeared, the railway side of the road has been cleared the road is now sealed, and there's adequate street lighting. In the space of the years that span the taking of these two photographs, much has been done that is not obvious, for Inglewood can boast one of the cleanest towns in the province...at least, that's our opinion.

Y.W.C.A. Stay-At-Home Camp

Each year, during the August school holidays, the YWCA hold a stay-at-home camp for girls. This year, over 80 girls attended a most successful camp which catered for many of their interests and ended with a trip to the mountain. Above, left: Mrs Vivienne Goodwin shows a group of interested girls how to make cloth novelties. Above, right: A helping hand is given to Celia Blackburn, by Vivienne Wallis, as she does gymnastics on the beam. Below, left: Showing each other what they have made are Lynette Comba, Rowan Williams, and Christine McGiven. Below, right: Lorraine Gilbert and Caroline Hendy really enjoyed themselves on the trampoline.

FIVE YEARS AGO

It's hard to believe that only five years span the taking of these two photographs. The picture above, was taken just that time ago, and shows the old Red Cross building in Devon Street, almost opposite the old Post Office. It certainly was an eyesore--in fact, a disgrace for our main street, but a fine new structure has taken its place, below, and is a credit to the society. Without photographs, it is hard to remember what the old looked like.

Above: PATU-MAWHINNEY. At Cambridge Terrace Methodist Church, Christchurch, Heather, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs W.M. Mawhinney, Timaru, to John, elder son of Mr and Mrs R. Patu, Waitara. The matron of honour was Jennifer Stuart, Wellington, and the best man was Walker Matuku, Waitara. The flower-girl was Lynn Turner, Dunedin, and the page boy was Robert MacKay, Timaru. Future home, Christchurch.

Below: HANCOCK-LOVERIDGE. At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Stratford, Patricia Anne, third daughter of Mr and Mrs D. Loveridge, Stratford, to Wayne Anthony, eldest son of Mr and Mrs T. Hancock, Lowgarth. The bridesmaids were Arlene and Carolyn Loveridge, sisters of the bride, Donna Loveridge, and Glenda Hancock, sister of the groom. The best man was Brian Gilbert, Stratford, and Terry Hancock, brother of the groom, was the groomsman. Future home, Ohakea.

Bernina Tour Won By N.P. Rider

The recent Bernina two-day tour of the province was won by New Plymouth's Grant Knuckey. He had high placings in most of the stages, which earned him overall first place. For the race, the weather was not quite as good as it might have been, with plenty of moisture on all of the stages, and a fair amount of wind which had to be fought against too. All in all, not a very comfortable race for the competitors—in fact, there were only five finishers after the third stage. Above: These are the first five men home at the end of the third stage which finished at Coronation Avenue. First was Ian Haw, NP, followed by Grant Knuckey, NP, A. McMeekin, Dunedin, Grant Adlam, NP, and Jeff Wells, Waitara. Left: Albie Hayward, NP, struggles across the line to take third place at the end of the race. Below: Finish of the sixth stage saw A. McMeekin over the line first, followed by Grant Knuckey.

Spring Flower Show

We can't say that we've had much in the way of spring weather lately, but it could not have been too bad, because the annual Spring Flower Show in the Agricultural Hall was just as colourful and crowded as in other years. The thing that amazed us most was the amount of preparation that went into the arranging of the various displays. Until one sees just what is involved, it is hard to realise just what it takes to make a successful display. We took these photographs as the exhibitors were busy preparing their various flowers for show. Above: Two of the stewards, Mesdames E.R. Jackson and E.M. Rowe, view a display. Right: Miss Mavis Verry was busy with her blooms for exhibition. Below, left: Ruth Gray and Dorothy Anderson pick the flowers for a display. Below, right: Mr W. Bond, a long time exhibitor arranges his entries.

Above: Mrs Julia Clark sets out her exhibition blooms to their best advantage. Below: Lyn Sublitz has a prickly problem as he views two very fine cacti. Above, right: Jocelyn and Nancy Gyde look at the other exhibits after displaying their own. Right: Mrs E. Robertson was responsible for some very fine displays. Below, right: Mrs H. Stimpson's task was not an easy one with a display of a variety of flowers.

PRIMARY SOCCER TROPHY WINNERS

It was a crowded day at Lynmouth Park recently for the annual end-of-season 7-a-side soccer tournament and trophy presentation. Above: Here are just a few of the boys who take part in this competition each week. Right: Junior council chairman Keith Roberts presented the trophies. Here, Howard Jones and John Guppy receive the 7th grade challenge shield. Below: Kelvin Bishop, captain of 8th grade champs Marfell, receives the cup. Below, right: Leslie Hickling, captain of Fitzroy, gets the 9th grade challenge cup.

On this page are the respective captains of their soccer teams who had the honour of collecting trophies at the closing of the Primary soccer season. Above: Chairman Keith Roberts presents the 9th grade seven-a-side cup to Woodleigh's John Lawrence. Below: Fitzroy 7th grade champions. Above, centre: Sean McElhannan, captain of Vogeltown, winners of the 7-a-side. Above, right: Andrew Fox received the cup for the best behaved and turned out team during the season--his team was Merrilands Boys Club. Right: Brent Pope with a shield to Fitzroy. Far right: Westtown won the 8th grade challenge shield. Below, centre: Peter Burmester, captain of the Central, 9th grade champions. Below, right: Peter Robertson, Celtic captain, winners of the 7th grade 7-a-side.

SO YOU'RE 21...Well, we know that Mum and Dad are proud of you, and you must have a host of friends, so if your 21st is soon, and you go to Henry McGee in New Plymouth, or David Paul in Hawera, they have forms for you to fill in ensuring that your 21st birthday photograph appears in the next available issue of "Photo News".

Primary School Soccer Championships

Above, left: The end of the soccer season produced champions in all of the three grades, plus some very close competition during the season. Here is the Fitzroy 9th grade team which won the challenge trophy for their grade. Below, left: This team, the Marfell school eleven, won the 8th grade championship without having a loss recorded against them—quite an achievement. Above: Central 9th grade champions with their chaperon-cum-trainer. Below: Not often a cup goes outside the city, but these boys from the Celtic team in Stratford won the seven-a-side tournament.

ELTHAM—THEN AND NOW

The picture above, taken shortly after the turn of the century and showing Bridge Street, Eltham, shows a considerable difference from the photograph taken recently. Though not quite the same part of the street, it would seem that the inhabitants of those days preferred to walk in the roadway, quite a difference from today, just a short sixty years after. Who would dare walk in the roadway, even in Eltham, today? By the size of the Coronation Hotel in the old photo, it seems that the hotel trade was a flourishing one in the district in those days.

WAITARA C.W.I. BIRTHDAY

About a hundred women from Waitara and other branches of the CWI gathered recently to celebrate the 34th birthday of the Waitara branch at the Anglican Hall. The local ladies provided a fine array of talent for items that were distinctly novel and enjoyed by the large audience.

LOOKING BACK FIVE YEARS

Remember the disastrous fire down among the oil tanks at the port? It was just five years ago, and this photograph should help to refresh your memory. That was a day which was fraught with excitement as the firemen battled successfully to save what could easily have been a catastrophe.

TARANAKI'S FOUR ALL BLACKS

It's a proud day for Taranaki rugby, with four of our players chosen to travel with the All Blacks on their forthcoming tour. And they've all earned their place the hard way, by being good players and keeping themselves in the peak of condition. Here are pictures of the four at their daily chores. Above, left: John Major with son Ian isn't new to tours with the All Blacks. Above, right: Murray Wills is a new All Black and thoroughly deserves his place in the team. Below, left: Brian Muller, is photographed at work at Hutton's at Eltham. This will be his first tour, and well earned. Below, right: Alan Smith, another of our farmer footballers, is deserving of the honour bestowed on him.

N.PLYMOUTH HOSPITAL CENTENARY

It was a round of very popular functions over the period of a whole weekend for the centenary of the New Plymouth hospital. The most popular function was the garden party and official part of the proceedings on the lawns of the hospital, when the centennial gained the wishes of many speakers, including the Minister of Health, Mr McKay. Around 700 people at some time connected with the hospital were there to meet old friends and renew acquaintances made many years ago. The majority of the visitors were ex-nurses, judging by the talk we heard on the lawn. Above: The present day hospital, just 100 years after the first building was used on top of this hill. Below: Chairman of the hospital Board, Mr H.E. Blyde, welcomes the official guests and visitors. Bottom: A great vantage point was gained by the nurses and staff of the hospital. They were really on duty, but sneaked out to hear what was going on.

Nursing Through The Ages

The pageant of "Nursing through the ages" at the recent hospital centenary was a fine effort on the part of those responsible, and we feel much enjoyed by all. Here are the nurses who took part in this cavalcade. Above, from left: Lorraine Speck, Colleen Orr, Sister Marita and Judith Brown. Below, from left: Judith Haigh, Kathleen Coyne, Lynette Dean and Shirley Duke.

MARRIED

Above: BAKER-CORNEY. At Our Lady Help of Christians, Fitzroy, Patricia Ann, only daughter of Mr and Mrs L. Corney, Hillsborough, to Lester, elder son of Mr and Mrs H. Baker, NP. The bridesmaids were Jennifer Taylor, Waitara, and Robyn Baker, sister of the groom, NP. Best man was Paul Muller, Auckland, and the groomsman was Rodney Battersby, NP. Flower-girls were Margaret Copeman and Raewyn Northcott, both NP. Page boy was Peter Lambert, NP. Future home, Hillsborough.

MCLEOD SHIELD WINNERS

EVER BEEN FAR FROM HOME?

Have you ever lived in Alaska, Peru, or Borneo?
London, New York, or Tallahassee?
Sydney, Suva, or Cunnamulla?
Wellington, Waimate, or West Eyreton?

YOU HAVEN'T?

Well, lots of people do, especially young people. They move away from the old home town and you find them all over New Zealand, all over the world.

And they have a common occupational hazard. Homesickness.

Here's a good cure.....send them "Photo News" each month. Then no matter where they are ..... hitchhiking across the Steppes or through the Black Forest, teaching in Folkestone or typing letters in Sydney, banking in Blenheim or timber-felling in Tokoroa, or being a good wife anywhere.....there will be a certain bright spot each month.

The day "PHOTO NEWS" comes in the mail.

There's no doubt about this.....you should see the letters we get from far places.

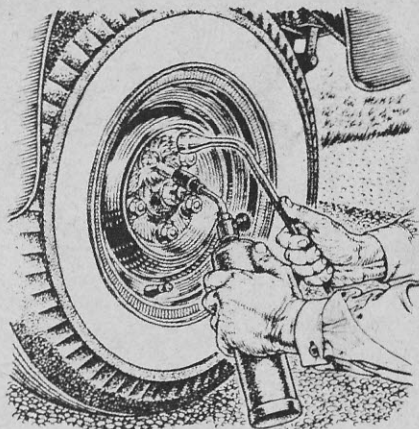

Send your own copy, or buy an extra one, or give us the name and address and we will mail "Photo News" every month for a year postpaid to anywhere in the world for $3.80.

You couldn't send anything nicer.

MOTORING WITH ROBBIE

AN OVER-TIGHTENED NUT can be easily removed by searing it briefly with a torch. Hold the wrench ready to loosen the nut the instant you remove the torch, otherwise the heat will transfer to the stud and expand that too. Keep the flame adjusted down to a minimum to avoid damaging the paint.

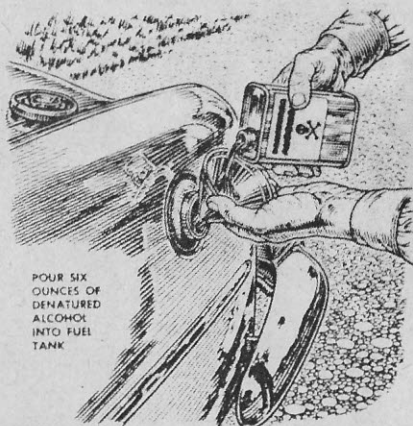

HOSE OF HAND
TYRE PUMP

REPLACING a tubeless tyre valve need not be difficult even if a proper installing tool isn't available. Press the valve in the rim hole and then screw on the tyre pump fitting. Place a claw hammer under the fitting and pull the valve into position.

HANDY HINTS

In a real emergency you can use water instead of brake fluid in the hydraulic brake system, but make sure that the system is drained and thoroughly flushed out as soon as possible afterwards.
